

WHO ARE WE?

Mediation is a process in which a neutral mediator helps the parties resolve a dispute. Mediation provides a quick, efficient and cost effective method of dispute resolution and a forum for constructive and positive discussion among the parties. Through the mediation process, the parties exchange ideas and information, identify issues and create solutions. The role of the mediator is to facilitate communication among the parties, to assist them in focusing on their real issues and interests, and to generate options for the resolution of the dispute that will meet the needs of all parties.

At Devry Smith Frank LLP (“DSF”), our mediators bring specialized expertise to every mediation. We also bring the experience of having been on both sides of the issue. We pinpoint the parties’ needs and guide the parties to a mutually beneficial resolution.

As mediators, we remain neutral, but we take an active role in finding the best solution for all parties.
