ARASH KEYVANI

B.A. (HONS.), J.D.

Areas of Practice: Family Law

Family law lawyer Arash Keyvani joined Devry Smith Frank LLP ("DSF") in 2019 as an associate in the Family Law Group.

Arash obtained his Honours Bachelor of Arts in Psychology from York University, where he graduated summa cum laude and was a member of the Dean's Honour Roll. His honours thesis explored the interaction between psychology and law. Arash received his Juris Doctor from the University British Columbia and was called to the Bar in 2018.

During law school, Arash was a clinician with the Law Students Legal Advice Program, where he provided free legal services to low income clients. Prior to joining DSF, Arash gained extensive experience articling and later practicing as an associate at a boutique family law firm, where he regularly appeared before the Ontario Court of Justice and the Superior Court of Justice.

In addition to English, Arash is fluent in Farsi and can provide legal services in both languages.

Outside the office, Arash enjoys photography, travel, and Latin dance.
